

Kindergarten will make you happy!
 We'll see you in Kindergarten real soon!

June 2014

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Visit the public library to check-out your child's favorite book. 1	Build your child's oral language skills by having a conversation with them. Let your child pick the topic! 2	How many circles are in your house? Encourage your child to count the circles in your house. 3	Walk around your neighborhood with your child to build a sense of community. 4	Encourage your child to draw a self-portrait. 5	Invite your child into the kitchen to help prepare dinner. Allow your child to measure, mix and pour. 6	Use play dough and encourage your child to begin forming letters. 7
Family Day! Visit a local park with your child. 8	How many squares are in your house? Encourage your child to count the squares in your house. 9	"I Spy Something Red!" Send your child on a scavenger hunt to find 5 red items. Practice reading the word red. 10	Encourage your child to look through junk mail or the newspaper to find the letters in their name. 11	Encourage your child to clean-up their toys independently. 12	Encourage your child to draw a picture and write about it. Remember scribbles are important! 13	It is Flag Day. Say the Pledge of Allegiance. Discuss the features of the American flag. 14
Enjoy a nice, simple family meal together at home! Discuss your day with your child. 15	"I Spy Something Blue!" Send your child on a scavenger hunt to find 5 blue items. Practice reading the word blue. 16	Recite your child's favorite nursery rhyme 10 times. Many Nursery rhymes are available on line to read and watch. 17	Encourage your child to count all of his/her shoes. 18	Turn on your child's favorite song and sing/dance with them! 19	Build math skills by asking your child to sort socks by colors. 20	Plant a flower with your child. Build a sense of responsibility by encouraging your child to care for the plant. 21
How many triangles are in your house? Encourage your child to count the triangles in your house. 22	Read your child's favorite book outside, if weather permits. 23	"I Spy Something Yellow!" Send your child on a scavenger hunt to find 5 yellow items. Practice reading the word yellow. 24	Encourage your child to write his/her name with a pencil. 25	Back Into the Kitchen! Let your child prepare his/her healthy snack. 26	Encourage your child to cut 5 straight lines. Remember to use age-appropriate scissors! 27	Return to the public library and check-out an exciting Dr. Seuss book. 28
Hannah Banana! Create silly rhyming names for each family member. 29	Encourage your child to write their name with their favorite color. 30

Kindergarten will make you happy!

July 2014

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
		"I Spy Something Green!" Send your child on a scavenger hunt to find 5 green items. Practice reading the word green. 1	While at the store, ask your child to read the environmental print (signs, food boxes, etc.). 2	Celebrate freedom by enjoying a picnic with your family! Happy Family Day! Discuss the 4 th of July with your child. 3	Encourage your child to draw a picture and write about your picnic. Scribbles are important! 4	Enjoy some quality time with your child and venture outside to count the number of stars in the sky, if weather permits. 5
Encourage your child to write their first and last name with shaving cream and/or paint. 6	Encourage your child to sort his/her crayons and/or toys by colors. 7	"I Spy Something Orange!" Send your child on a scavenger hunt to find 5 orange items. Practice reading the word orange. 8	How many ovals are in your house? Encourage your child to count the ovals in your house. 9	Build your child's pre-reading skills by having them write your weekly grocery/shopping list. 10	Return to the public library and check-out an exciting bug book. 11	Play a board game, such as Candyland or Chutes n' Ladders , with your entire family. Games build critical thinking skills. 12
Encourage your child to cut 5 curvy lines. Remember to use age-appropriate scissors! 13	Build counting skills by counting the number of books in your house. 14	Work with your child to practice his/her phone number and address. 15	Build counting skills by counting the number of steps in house. 16	"I Spy Something Purple!" Send your child on a scavenger hunt to find 5 purple items. 17	While running errands around town, ask your child to read the environmental print (signs, license plates, etc.). 18	Back Into the Kitchen! Let your child prepare his/her healthy lunch and/or breakfast. Discuss measurements and kitchen safety. 19
How many diamonds are in your house? Encourage your child to count the diamonds or rhombus' in your house. 20	"I Spy Something Black!" Send your child on a scavenger hunt to find 5 black items. 21	Build your child's oral language skills by having a conversation with them. Let your child pick the topic! 22	Encourage your child to draw a picture and write about your picture. 23	White clouds, ice cream clouds, what do you see in the clouds? Venture outside with your child and imagine what you see in the clouds. 24	Return to the public library and check-out an exciting Back to School book. 25	Build your child's gross motor skills by bouncing a ball back and forth. 26
Encourage your child to cut 5 zig-zag lines. Remember to use age-appropriate scissors! 27	Encourage your child to help clean-up the house, including folding clothes and picking-up toys around the house. 28	Build counting skills by counting the number of windows in your house. 29	Play a board game, such as Candyland or Chutes n' Ladders , with your entire family. Games build critical thinking skills. 30	Freeze Tag or Hide-n-go-Seek! Encourage your entire family to play an outdoor game with your child. 31

Kindergarten will make you happy!
We'll see you in Kindergarten real soon!

August 2014

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
					"I Spy Something Pink!" Send your child on a scavenger hunt to find 5 pink items. Practice reading the word pink. 1	.Establish a bedtime routine to prepare your child for the busy school day! 2
Ensure that your child is ready for the first day of school by purchasing any supplies requested by your child's teacher 3	Sleep Tight, Don't Let the Bed Bugs Bite! Prepare your child for the first day of school by ensuring that they get a good night's rest! 4	Welcome to Kindergarten! 5

